PRO-AM MUAYTHAI TOURNAMENT

As athletes who have more experience in amateur tournaments it is a natural progression to improve themselves for higher ranking. The World Muaythai Federation's Judges and Referees and Rules Committee have decided that the next stage of progression is needed in order for the experience athletes to enter in the next stage

This is in line with many Amateur rules and regulations. As follows:

Protection Equipments;

- A. Boxing Gloves 10 / 12 ounces
- B. Shin, instep guards
- D. Metal groin guard
- E. Mouth Guard
- F. Elbow protection

Round / Their shall be 3 rounds / 3 min with 1.5 min rest
Or Their shall be 5 rounds / 2 min with 1 min rest/break

Weight Categories: as the same in amateur class

Point of score / Decision

There shall be 10 points score for the winner maximum per round

The loser shall score 9 or less according to there abilities

The winner should win the round by using muaythai weapons and techniques more effectively better than their opponent.

Standing Count;

The out come of the standing count may affect the score due to showing sign of receiving a heavy blow. The score maybe reduced by deducting 2 points in that round

ANY OTHER DISAGREEMENTS SHALL BE REFERED BACK TO THE AMATEUR MUAYTHAI RULES
